Subject: RLBH Annual Cook-out

Hello all,

We are having the annual RLBH Cook-out on July 10th at 6:00 PM.

I know some of you have opted out on the new list, but I haven't heard from some of you regulars, so I am sending this out on the entire RLBH list that I have.

If you would like to come, it is pot-luck. We will have the ability to grill.

If you do intend on coming, please e-mail me with the item you wish to bring. Remember that we don't need too much food as everyone will be bringing something. However, I want to even out the types of food that will be there so we don't have 1000 bags of chips and not burgers.

We will be meeting at the big Houghton's Pond parking lot. If the rain holds out, we will be attempting to take one of the picnic/cook-out sites beyond the bath house. My fingers are crossed. See you then! (Remember to e-mail me)

Jim
